

6516209793.txt

While XM does not yet have traffic broadcasts for the south Florida region, this is one feature that I have been anxiously awaiting, particularly given the limited traffic coverage available on the local radio stations.

I respectfully request that you do not look to limit the ability of satellite radio broadcasters to compete freely, and offer these broadcast in areas where the market demands or warrants such coverage.

Thank you !

Tony Abella
Pinecrest, Florida